

An artistic illustration of Belle and the Beast from Disney's 'Beauty and the Beast'. Belle is shown in profile, her eyes closed in a peaceful expression, as she gently kisses the Beast on the cheek. The Beast is depicted with a human-like face, his eyes closed, and his hands are visible, one resting on Belle's head and the other on his chest. The background is a dense, textured pattern of brown and orange leaves, suggesting an autumn setting. The overall style is reminiscent of classic storybook illustrations.

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Dear Friends and Families,

Welcome and thank you for joining us for our twelfth annual year-end performance. Our students have been working very hard to make this night fun and memorable for you.

We would like to recognize our high school seniors, Sofia Cruz, Cecilia Domingo and Rachel Wilde.

- Sofia will be attending St. Edward's University and will be studying human biology and anatomy in hopes of pursuing a career in physical therapy.
- Cecilia will be attending Texas State University majoring in Psychology with a minor in Dance.
- Rachel will be attending Texas A&M University majoring in Kinesiology and Dance Science. After college she hopes to continue dancing and work as a physical therapist in the ballet world.

These young ladies will be greatly missed by everyone at QBS, and we wish them all the best in their future endeavors!

To all dancers, we want to say how much we have enjoyed having each and every one of you in class. Whether you aspire to dance professionally or just for the love of dance, remember to work to your fullest potential and you will always reap the benefits.

To all our instructors, thank you for a great year. We are very fortunate at QBS to have such dedicated, caring teachers who are always willing to help their students excel at dance and strive to be the best they can be. We are very proud of their work, and tonight you will be able witness first hand just how talented they all are.

To the parents who spent hours making props and sewing embellishments on costumes, and who have volunteered their time for today's performance, thank you!!

A special thank you goes to Katja Zurcher who volunteered her time to step in as Mrs. Potts to narrate our version of Beauty and Beast.

And finally to our loving son, Ernesto, you have become a fine young man and are our motivation to keep going. We love you very much!

Tonight's show will be presented in two Acts. But we'll let Mrs. Potts tell you the story . . .

With gratitude and sincere thanks,

Catalina and Ernesto
